Three Fire Departments Called To Fight Blaze Which Destroys Three Dwelling Houses At Kona

Three fire departments were called to Kona Sunday morning about 11:10 o'clock (EST) to fight a fire which broke out in the New Kona home of Corbett Mullins and quickly spread to four other adjoining buildings.

Those fire departments came from Neon, Whitesburg, and Jenkins, and the Whitesburg Fire Department was reported to be the only department pumping water on the blaze which had already gained headway on three of the houses before fire fighters arrived.

Fire Destroys Service Station

The C. B. Clay Service Station a mile and a half east of Whitesburg was completely destroyed a little after 12:00 o'clock noon Monday by a fire which broke out in a furnace room in the rear of the building and quickly burst through the entire station after being fed by white gasoline, kerosene, and tires which were stored in a storage room in back.

Damage to the building and property was estimated at $25,000 by Whitesburg Fire Chief Remious Day, who said his estimate was conservative since the station was well stocked with expensive items. Insurance amounting to $10,000 was carried with the Whitesburg Insurance Agency.

Mr. Clay said he was in the front room of his station when the fire burst through the tire and storage room. He said he hadn't smelled smoke or felt any excessive heat up to that time.

He called the Whitesburg Fire Department and the fire had burst through the roof and the entire building was in flames when the department reached the station.

Fire Chief Day said his men had to lay 1400 feet of hose from the burning station to the Kentucky River in order to obtain a substantial supply of water with which to fight the blaze.

He said he doubted if the building could have been saved at that point if the river had been run through it, since melted rubber from the large stock of tires was over an inch thick on the building's floor.

Also damaged by the fire was the Whitesburg, Y. W. Post's clubhouse, which is located near the service station. Paint was blistered on the clubhouse and a saddle of the roof was damaged. No storage tanks exploding. Chief Day said, since the tanks were a late model which has a foot valve to automatically cut off the pump from the underground tank when the pump is full.

A load of gasoline had been delivered before the fire and the underground tanks were full. A third pump was saved.

MEMBER KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION—NATIONAL EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION

We Got A Report From "Ole Virginie"

From out of that grand old Mother State of Virginia we get a report on law enforcement which smells of the same type of speed traps we have come to meet in our vicinity at certain times . . . the type of trap which grabs a man with an out of town license plate and jerks a fine from him regardless of his plea of innocence.

The incident from "Ole Virginie" took place in a little town by the unassuming name of Strasburg. Principal victim in this little Thanksgiving Day drama was a Letcher County youth on his way from Massachusetts to his Whitesburg home, where the body of his mother lay in state.

That young man, sporting New York license plates on his car, was stopped in a 20 mile speed zone and accused of driving over 40 miles per hour. He didn't deny that he was perhaps traveling over 20 miles per hour but he said he wasn't going very fast. His thoughts at the time of course were of getting home but he had no idea of breaking any laws in his anxiety to get there.

He was also tired, weary, and worried at the time, having driven since 1:00 o'clock in the morning to the time of his arrest, which was about noon. He said he apologized to the arresting officer and judge and told them why he wished to reach home quickly but the Virginians just laughed at him and put him under bond to appear in their court in December. He will of course forfeit the bond rather than inconvenience himself by appearing in the town again.

The story doesn't end there. When the Letcher Countyman left the court he was followed by two officers until he was ten miles out of Strasburg. You can bet that in the future he won't care to get within ten or even a hundred miles of that town again.

While thinking of the treatment Letcher County drivers have received in other towns our mind goes back a few weeks to the evening when a couple of our football coaches were stopped in the little Floyd County town of Lackey and charged with excessive speeding, although they claimed they were not traveling very fast. The Police Judge was eating at that particular time and didn't want to disturb his meal for a speeding trial so the coaches were sent on their way to the Big Sandy Bowl and told to watch their step while in Lackey.

A week later, the Floyd County Times ran a front page story where the Police Judge of Lackey admitted he had a speed trap in operation in his small incorporated town. He told of the speed trap with pride and we don't think his boasts helped the popularity of Lackey or that particular Police Judge. We know our coaches don't think much of Lackey.

And then we hit home with a very up-to-date incident where a car passing a school bus is once more involved. Victim in this case is a salesman for a national company. That salesman has made his headquarters in the county for quite a while and knows his way around. "Evidently he doesn't know his way around the law circles too well however, or he wouldn't sport an out-of-state license plate," a friend remarked when we inquired of the incident.

Here's how it was told to us:

The salesman passed a moving school bus and two trucks belonging to a local wholesale firm passed the moving bus also. A car behind the trucks stopped and didn't pass the bus as the big vehicle slowed to a stop. An officer gave chase to the other vehicles, passed the two wholesale trucks and arrested the salesman with the out-of-state license plates.

We could name many incidents but we'll just stop right here and wonder just what is the reason for the sudden interest in dragging drivers into court. Is it because the law is finally cracking down on drivers who have been violating traffic rules in the past and have escaped or is it because "grab money has become the livelihood of many who can't or won't try to make a living elsewhere now that the easy money of the war and post war boom is gone.

You answer the questions: We'll just watch and report on incidents within our focus.

Fire Points Further Need Of Annexing

This week's disastrous fire outside the corporate limits of Whitesburg points further to the need of annexing much of the thickly populated territory outlining the city's boundaries. That need has been stressed in the past few months by the City Council, Mayor, and interested citizens but opposition has been so strong that no move for annexation has been made.

Strongest reason to opposition to annexation is of course the resentment of (city) taxes which would add a heavier burden on already over-taxed property owners. However, that reason could be easily overcome if those property owners realized how much more benefit they get from city taxes than from state, county, or government tax.

Being a part of a city offers benefits which far overshadow any disadvantages a little extra taxing might impose. We point first to the fire protection which is offered to residents of the city. Of course, the fire department will go to fires anywhere outside the city limits when called to do so but that department can make no arrangements beforehand to protect places out of corporate limits in case of fire. We speak of fire hydrants and other necessities to lessening the chance of fire doing great damage.

At Monday night the Whitesburg Fire Department had to lay 1400 feet of hose in order to find a source of water with which to fight the fire. Laying that hose meant a loss of valuable time and still little water could be pumped from such a long distance. If a fire hydrant had been inlaid nearby, a good source of water would have been handy with plenty of pressure. The city installs fire hydrants at convenient places throughout its corporate limits.

There is also the sanitary angle to think of when the annexation question comes to the front. Whitesburg hauls its citizens' garbage free of charge and dumps that garbage far out of town. Streets are also washed at regular intervals and other sanitary and health measures are followed. A city must look out for the health of its individuals.

The city also has a fine police department which is on call at all times to protect its citizens. A Saturday night in Whitesburg's streets is usually more free of evil sights than a Sunday night in many other towns.

We are not coming right out and urging everyone to start yelling for annexation. Our intention is to urge those living in the immediate outskirts of the city to give thought to the possibility of annexation and study all advantages as measured against the disadvantages such annexation will offer. We think the advantages will win.

Head of Local Coal Co. Appointed Secretary of Treasury

—by Seth Kegan—

George M. Humphrey is to be the new head of the U. S. Treasury. Mr. Humphrey was Chairman of the Board of Directors of Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Company, the parent company of Consolidation Coal Company (Ky.), Jenkins, Kentucky. Through his interest as a coal man and following his practice of seeing for himself those operations with which he was connected, Mr. Humphrey has made many trips into southeastern Kentucky.

At least once a year he made a visit to all the coal operations of Consol (Ky.) as well as visiting many other operations in the eastern Kentucky coal fields. Through these visits he became well acquainted with coal mining in this area and knew many connected with the coal industry of our section. Consequently, we have going into the Cabinet a friend, not a stranger who is known to many of us personally and who is interested in our section of Kentucky.

Another thing which would endear Mr. Humphrey in the hearts of Kentuckians is his love for horses. He is a former master of the hounds of the Chagrin Valley Hunt Club and still rides to the hounds. He has a stable of brood mares in Lexington and a training stable under W. P. (Doc) Jones of Charlotte, Va.

Aside from his interests in Pittsburgh Consol, Mr. Humphrey has been head of the M. A. Hannah Company for 23 years; chairman of the executive committee of the National Steel Corporation; Chairman of the executive committee of the Industrial Rayon Corporation; President of the Iron Ore Company of Canada and director of all these firms as well as the Phelps Dodge Corp., the National City Bank of Cleveland and the Canada and Dominion Sugar Company. Mr. Humphrey is resigning all of these positions to accept the position of Secretary of the Treasury.

While Mr. Humphrey has been in the public eye very little he is quite well known in industrial and financial circles. He is one of the leading figures in finance in our country.

Politically Mr. Humphrey is a Republican. He has been very active in educational, charitable and civic programs but has never before engaged in political activities or held a public position.

Using Mr. Humphrey's own words about his appointment, "It was a surprise to me. It will be an important financial, family and business sacrifice but I couldn't sleep nights if I didn't do it." This clearly indicates the truly great and unselfish American that he is.

A LETTER

Tiffin, Ohio
To The Mountain Eagle,
Whitesburg, Ky.

I would like for you to print this letter for me since I can tell you more about the fee grabbing in that town like Mr. Combs spoke of in his letter.

I was taken before Magistrate at Whitesburg for an out-of-state license. I had just bought the car four days before and one of the deputy sheriffs had been driving the same car a few days before I got the car, and he had been making arrests in the car with the same plates on the car. He was asked in the magistrate's presence if he was violating the law when he drove the car and he said he was not.

An officer arrested me for improper license. I had no chance for a trial. I was getting ready to leave Letcher for work in Tiffin, Ohio, and would get a new license there but was forced to get Kentucky plates before I could get out of Kentucky.

My father was sick and had just come home from the Seco Hospital, and I wanted to stay around for a few days before I left. I went to see a friend at Sergeant, Ky. and the same evening deputies came down there and arrested me without a warrant and searched me and my car without a search warrant and for no cause took me to the Millstone Store and tried to get me identified as the one who broke in the store. They had already found the ones and made arrests earlier in the day. I had never been accused of stealing before (or afterwards) and have always tried my best to be law abiding in every way.

I had two sets of license to buy. I stayed here 30 days on my Ky. plates and could have stayed longer. Guess they will get me for new plates when I come home to see dad again as I have just heard he is back in the Seco Hospital. I now have Ohio plates.

The incident I speak of happened on the 25th of August. My name is John H. Sammons, better known as Johnnie Sammons, formerly of Thornton but now residing in Tiffin, Ohio.

Please print this letter. I will take the criticism. I have been reading Mr. Combs' piece in the dear old Eagle. Mom sends me The Eagle every week, she lives at Thornton. She will hand you this.

So with thanks,
—JOHN H. SAMMONS.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: We print your letter, as we print all signed letters from our readers when those letters are not obscene or out of place. However, by printing this letter, we do not take sides in the controversy in question.)

LIONS

CLUB
Most of the Whitesburg citizens are familiar with the big orange buttons "DOWN SOUTH".

Royal Crown
Bottling Company
Whitesburg, Ky.

"SOUTH" on the proud and manly chests of the Lions. A visitor inquired of a Lion, "What does that badge mean?" He answered, "My heart goes where the Democrats go, DOWN SOUTH".

Republicans, Democrats, Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians and Independents will all go to see the great Minstrel show at the Whitesburg Grades School, December 11, a leatle after 7:29 which (colloquialism) is near the edge of darkness.

Most of the troupe of players will be dressed in black with bug-tailed coats. Ham Bonnett will introduce the drama. Those needed to be thrown out have already been attended to, and the show will go on in pomp and circumstance. A clean show, which always performs in the annual minstrel, will be given. All the little cotton-pickin', "workin' on the railroad" gangs will be full of fun that is, and there will be plenty of punches that will not be pulled for your enjoyment.

Paul Vermillion, chairman of the minstrel show, and well-known-Lion promises a mouth-spread for every laugh. Whitesburg folks know what is the annual benefit given to the needy people through this Minstrel, and they are just rearin' to get front-box seats for the occasional wake-up, and giggle events.

You will be wearin' your

"DOWN SOUTH" buttons, or pokin' a dollar ticket in the Lion's paws to get an early seat.

Most of the back seats are always taken early at the churches, but these front seats and special box-arrangements will give the hearers thereof better and more laughable positions. Let no one be able to say, "I went to the Minstrel, but I did not split my sides grinning from suspender to suspender." There will be some frowns among the blushes, but those who take the risk of coming will just take their own chances on splitting their seams in the big laugh.

Lions are sorry, but they cannot be responsible for damages done by losing upper or lower plates, getting beat on the backs, or having laugh-in' convulsions while the show is orderly proceedin'.

THE PARSON SAYS:

—by E. Hampton Barnette
Last week "The Parson" spoke at the High School Chapel. Paul Vermillion asked his little girl, "Who was the speaker at the chapel today?" The little girl answered: "I don't know who he was, but he was from 'DOWN SOUTH' for he had a big button on his coat telling where he was from. I thought I was well known in Letcher County."

I had paid enough fines for not wearing that "DOWN SOUTH" Lions minstrel button, so I just had to save enough time to get me in the minstrel December 11, so I wore the button as speaker at the chapel.

Lady Barnette was looking over the new parsonage the other day, and observed the nice spacious wardrobes, closets, and shelves. She said: "Merciful goodness, we will not have anything left to put under the beds with all this space to store things."

In making a pastoral call to the Marlowe store and office the other day, I noticed a strange perfume in Orval Hughes office, which I was slightly accustomed to at times when the going was rough. A mouse had been its demise, and was lingering longer under the floor than its welcome would grant it permission. I knew Dan Combs was used to expensive perfume and Jimmie Marlowe had just returned from New York. Upon inquiry I was informed that a mouse had starved to death up there, because the Methodist Church had broke the office force with collections, and they were not able to feed their rats and mice, sufficiently to keep them alive. I have often heard of the "Poor church mouse", but this is the first time I ever knew one to starve to death in a coal company office.

In a most interesting and moving speech made at the Union Thanksgiving services at the Baptist Church, delivered by Prof. W. L. Cooper, Superintendent of the Stuart Robinson School, Blackey, he reached his climax by saying: "The first $800 was given to start the school by a Methodist Woman of Florida, who later gave $8,500 to start the Library." He remarked, "Methodist money in the hands of Presbyterians, is always a good investment."

He gave his thanks that he a Presbyterian had been invited by a Methodist Preacher to speak in a Baptist church.

He observed that this was a good sign of Christian cooperation in Whitesburg.

Dr. Lee Moore, Orval Hughes, and Virgil Picklesimer, gave most helpful and effective prayers during the Thanksgiving services. The tons of their petitions was Christian unity in the world, nation, and the community. The ministerial Association headed by The Rev. Cleo Rodgers, planned one of the best Thanksgiving services we have been privileged to attend.

The community will come into cooperation again very soon when the Annual Christmas baskets will be provided for the needy.

One who lives in Whitesburg has become familiar with the lovely spirit shown in any time of need among the people. One who tries to earn a decent living, but finds himself unable to make ends meet, will always have friends to tide him over when the going is rough.

Those who expect to get a basket for Christmas will be expected to attend some church, and show his Christian interest in the community life. People like to share with those who are worthy, and those who are trying to make life happy and useful.

The churches should all be full between now and Christmas. Santa Claus always visits the churches. He likes good little peoples, and wants to fill their stockings, while they fill their souls with spiritual things.

The Pine Mountain Baptist Associational Missionary —by John R. Isaac— Friends are past one holiday, and we are approaching Christmas. We generally give a person a gift on his birthday—I wonder what we will give Christ on his birthday. Last week at Hot Spot we had forty in Sunday School. I had fifteen in an adult young peoples class. Mr. Alvin Holbrook is doing a fine job there. We would like for all our churches to get ready to attend the Associational Sunday School meeting at Central Church at Cumberland on Sunday Dec. 7, 1952. The executive board meets at McRoberts Baptist Church Dec. 8, 1952 at 7:30 (EST). We rejoice with the Jenkins Baptist Church over a fine revival. Brother R. Les James has been having what he calls a ten-week revival, and many precious souls have been saved.

Members folk, one of our goals for the new year was to have half as many mission stations as we have churches. We have sixteen churches and at the present we only have five mission stations. Let us remember that a church with no outlet for its spiritual overflows will soon become stagnant and die. Let me know if I can help you with a spiritual problem. See you next week.

OBITUARIES

Uncle "Hop" Gibson.

Joseph Hopkins Gibson, son of Christopher Alderson and Rachel Caudill Gibson, was born in Scott County, Virginia, on March 26, 1873, deceased November 22, 1952. He spent his boyhood days in Virginia and came to Kentucky in his early manhood.

He was married to Victoria Bostic in 1896, who died in 1899, leaving Nora, an infant of two weeks. On February 17, 1902, he was married to Manerva Adams who passed away June 9, 1932.

To this union were born ten children, eight girls and two boys. One daughter and a son passed away in infancy. The other son, Edwin, passed away December 20, 1936, at the age of 32 years.

In 1939 he was married to Sallie Jenkins who survives him. Also surviving him are the eight daughters: Mrs. Nora Boyd, Leatherwood, Mattie Verne Banks, Elizabeth, Beulah Caudill, Geneva Caudill, Louanna Banks, Minnie Mae Banks, and Virginia Brown, all living in Cowan. He leaves 32 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren.

He leaves three brothers and two sisters, Mrs. Verna Robinson, Clinchport, Va., Mrs. Lina Robinette of New York, S. W. Gibson, Belvedere, Tenn., J. C. Gibson, Appalachia, Va., and W. M. Gibson, Big Stone Gap, Va.

He served in the Spanish American War and was honorably discharged in 1908. He became a member of the First Baptist Church of Whitesburg, on March 31, 1909, at which time the church was organized. On April 4, 1909, the first business meeting of the church was held and he was elected deacon along with five others. On May 6, 1914, he was elected as Trustee and served his church well in this capacity. He remained a devoted member as long as he lived and was an active member as long as he was able to attend.

He joined the Masonic Order of Whitesburg Lodge November 23, 1903 and progressed to 32nd in degree in the order. He was a carpenter and stone mason by trade and many buildings of this section were erected by him. Among some of the older buildings of Whitesburg of which he was in charge were The Daniel Boone Hotel, the Bank Building, The Whitesburg High and Graded Schools.

He also played a large part in the new Presbyterian Church and numerous homes in and around the city. He also planned and assisted in the building of seven of his daughter's homes. Being a conscientious worker he was very considerate of all those who worked with him and was loved and respected by all with whom he came in contact. From his admiration for all good architecture and his humble faith in the Christian way of life, he will surely be a fond admirer of the handiwork of God in the Eternal Home where we feel is his reward.

Funeral services were held at the residence, Cowan, Ky., on Thursday, Nov. 25, at 10:00 A. M., with Rev. Cleo Rodgers, and Elder Bernard Banks officiating. Burial in the family cemetery. Masonic Order of Whitesburg Lodge Post No. 754 in charge of cemetery. Craft Funeral Home in charge of funeral arrangements.

Obituary of— Troy W. Frazier

If a man die shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come. Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work and thine hands. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.

The above could have been the words that kept Troy inspired to live a humble clean life. Because he knew that his fleshly body was going back to the dust of the earth and that his spirit was going back to God who gave it. He wanted to be ready when his change came. He knew that man that was born of woman, his day were few and full of trouble. Yet he clung tenaciously to that hope and knelt by his bed night after night and prayed to that God in whom he trusted asking him for help and guidance.

How thankful we are that years ago when but a young man Troy gave his heart to Jesus and confessed that Jesus was the Christ. He joined the Indian Bottom Regular Baptist Church when but a young man and brought his letter to live with his wife in the Thornton Church.

Troy W. Frazier was the son of the late Hiram and Vina Hogg Frazier was born Nov. 2, 1894 at Dalma, Letcher County, Kentucky. During his childhood he remained in that vicinity and learned to love the people. After going to school Troy acquired a teacher's certificate and taught school for a number of years.

In 1915 at the beginning of World War I Troy volunteered his service for his country and during his enlistment saw action at the front in France and Germany, serving in Battery A of the 32nd Railroad Battalion. He was discharged in 1920 with the rank of Sergeant.

Troy returned to his native Section after the war and was married to Lola Collins. To the union were born three children. Two of them having preceded him in death.

In 1939 he was married to Cora Reynolds. They lived a happy and devoted life. Children were born three months and 27 days. She was married to Melvin Cornett on September 24, 1919, to this happy union was born 4 children who survive her: Evelyn Fields, Whitesburg; Rosemary Whitaker, Tiffin, Ky.; Van Cornett, Brockton, Mass.; Hazel Jean Worax, Tiffin, O. Ruby to Lethair and to Hemp Hill. He loved to go to church. In 1946 he was Commander of Douglas Day Post of the American Legion, at the time of his death was Chaplain of Whitesburg VFW Post. He was a member of the Whitesburg Masonic Lodge No. 754 and Hester Chapter 540. E. S.

Troy served as County Court Clerk of Letcher County during the first four months of 1930 and in this capacity showed his love for his fellow man by his firm handshake, his happy smile and an ambition to serve the people faithfully.

He leaves to mourn his passing his companion Cora Reynolds Frazier, one daughter Joy Wray Breeding, and three brothers, Fred Hiram, and George, and a host of friends and relatives.

A precious brother from us is gone. A voice we loved is still. The place is vacant in his home. That never can be filled. A dear one from our church is gone.

There sits a vacant place. But in that bright and shining home. Someday we'll see his face. He is waiting for you. He has crossed the rolling tide. Are you ready to meet him. Over on the other side. The Whitesburg Funeral Home in charge of the funeral.

Card of Thanks

We want to thank our neighbors and friends who came to our assistance in the passing of our precious, humble husband and father, who believed in his God and the power from on high to lead and direct his steps here on earth.

Troy bore his afflictions and suffering with cheerful patience. In the Holy word it says, "By their fruits ye shall know them." I believe Troy bore that fruit and with the help of God we will be united on that Great Day. I know Troy is at rest and through suffering.

I wait every one to know how deeply and sincerely we appreciated every act of kindness and sympathy shown to us.

To Albert Routley and Duane Barber of the Craft Funeral Home, who helped me to get to Sharon Heights Hospital, I shall never forget. I wish also to thank the Sisters and Dr. Moran who showed sympathy and gave words of comfort to my broken heart.

To those who helped to carry out the funeral as we desired and made such special effort, we especially thank the following: Hester Chapter No. 54, E. S., Ladies Auxiliary of the V. F. W., the V. F. W. Post 5829, American Legion Douglas Day Post and the Masonic Lodge 754 F&AM. Also Mr. Quillen, Don Froste, and Christine of the Whitesburg Funeral Home, who had charge of the funeral and gave such efficient, courteous and kind service, and to Miss Gertrude Gambill, who gave her service so willingly.

We shall never forget the ministers, who came and offered prayer in our home, Bro. Cleo B. Rodgers of the First Baptist Church and Bro. Bassel Hall. To those who conducted the funeral Bros. W. S. Tolliver, M. M. Music and Raymond Collins.

JOY WRAY BREEDING.

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

In memory of Troy W. Frazier, who died Saturday, Nov. 15, 1952.

Death again entered our Chapter Hall and called to the Eternal Home a dearly beloved brother who has completed his faithful labor here in ministering to the cry of the orphan to the call of want and to the piteous wail of sorrow. And as recompense has received the welcome "well done" from the Great Master.

And whereas, the Loving Father having called our beloved and respected Brother home, and having been a true and respected member of our Mystic Order, therefore, it be resolved that Hester Chapter No. 54, Order of Eastern Star of Whitesburg, Ky., in testimony of its loss, drape its chapter in mourning for 39 days.

And that we tender to the family of our deceased Brother our sincere condolence in their deep affliction and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

"I cannot say and I will not say, With a submissive smile and a wave of the hand They have entered into a better land And left us thinking how very fair It need must be since they are there And you, oh you, who so fondly yearn, Think of them as living on as dear In the land of there as the land of here."

TALKING IT UP!

And now we swing from the gridiron to the hardwood with hardly a time out in between for here we are still thinking of football while county teams have already opened their 1962-63 basketball season or will open the season this week.

Fans who saw the Whitesburg-Kingdom Come game Monday night got a pretty good insight of what to expect from those two teams. Kingdom Come came into the fray with an impressive won four lost one record, which included wins over Stinnett (61-26), Buckhorn (41-39), Leatherwood (61-52), and M. C. Napier (63-49), and a lone loss to Phelps (57-49).

Whitesburg wasn't impressed with records however. The boys of Coach Ray Pigman were out to see just what kind of team they had after losing last season's two standout forwards, Jimmy Bert Tolliver and Carroll Sexton, plus a couple of good guards. When Ray's boys took the floor for the opening tip-off, only two of last year's starters were present. They were John Hall at center and Buddy Fields at guard. Rest of the team was made up of B. F. Kincaid, James Crase, and Miranda Logan.

On Kingdom Come's team for that opening game were only half of the first ten men who dressed for last March's 63rd District Tournament.

Gone was the familiar name of Darrel Crase, one of the great players to come out of Kingdom Come High School. Mark Creech was gone also but the name of his brother Harvey was still on the roster and Harvey is the boy whom opposing teams have been watching. Whitesburg had reason to watch Harvey also for up to that time the big forward had run opposition ragged with his long push shots and driving crips while racking up 107 points in five games for better than a 20 point per game average. The lot of guarding Creech fell on Miranda Logan, Camp Branch youth who saw very little varsity action last year. Although looking a little awkward and out of place at times, Miranda turned in an excellent performance while holding the high scoring Mr. Creech to 13 points. Logan also showed a couple flashes of future brilliance with his play under the board. Creech showed the fans why he had to be watched every second as he hit two long push shots which stripped the nets and then came back with a couple of his driving specialties.

The new version of the Yellowjackets is just what we expected. They aren't too big and are short on experience and long on determination, courage and the will to learn. All are good boys morally and the type Ray Pigman likes to work with. They will get better as the season progresses but don't expect them to set the woods on fire when they meet Hazard, Hindman, and a few other powerhouses.

Ray Pigman
His Yellowjackets
Win Opener

Kingdom Come's strength seems to lie with Harvey Creech who is the key man in the Wildcat attack. It's hard to depend on one or even two men and the Wildcats will have to find more strength on the bench as well as among the varsity. This strength may come with experience. However, the Wildcats are capable of living up to their nickname and can really go wild if an opposing team tries to run with them in an unorganized fashion. You just can't run helterskelter with the Wildcats and beat them for they are old masters at the run, shoot, run game. Whitesburg tried the race horse tactics three times against the Wildcats and each time Coach Adams' boys gained points before Ray Pigman could get his charges to call a time out.

The Yellowjackets will get another test to decide just who's who in the county when they go to Blackey Friday night to meet the Stuart Robinson Eagles, who should have one of their best years with regulars like Dorace Fields and Roger Haynes back to pace the attack. Another good bit of inter-county flavor will be the Pirate-Cavalier game Friday night. Such favorites as Pirates Murphy and Cox and Cavaliers Pack and Collier will draw a good crowd to this game at Jenkins, we expect.

BASKETBALL SEASON OPENS

Whitesburg Takes Cage Opener From Kingdom Come 48-34

The Whitesburg Yellowjackets turned on a 17 point scoring spree in the last quarter of their opening game here Monday night to defeat the Kingdom Come Wildcats 48-34 in a game which had been close all the way up to that final quarter.

Going into the fourth quarter, Ray Pigman's Yellowjackets held a 31-27 lead and midway of the quarter still held only a four point (36-32) lead.

M. Logan increased Whitesburg's lead by tipping one in under the basket and then following up a missed foul by John Hall to make the score 40-32.

McNulty hit a foul shot and Fields retaliated with a push shot. Boggs made a free throw and the score read 42-34. Whitesburg racked up six more points on two field goals by Hall and one by Fields after Kingdom Come's scoring for the night was ended.

Kingdom Come led only once in the game, pulling ahead of the Yellowjackets 12-11 on Boggs' jump shot with a minute and a half gone in the second quarter. The score was tied six times during the first half.

John Hall was the big gun of the night, sinking a total of 18 points on eight field goals and two free throws. Creech paced Kingdom Come with 13 points. Fields had 11 for Whitesburg.

Whitesburg and Stuart Robinson play at Stuart Robinson Friday night and Jenkins and Fleming-Neon angle at Jenkins on that night. The Pirates play host to the Garrett Black Devils Tuesday while Whitesburg travels to Jenkins on the same night.

Plans Being Made For Church League

Sporting interest among Whitesburg's younger set this week was concentrated on basketball as news of the proposed Sunday School league was spread by word of mouth.

The Sunday School league, which seems to be a reality, is just in the talking stage, although a couple teams have already been organized.

Purpose of the league is to build Sunday School attendance by creating an interest among youths who think only of Sunday School as a place to go and be "preached to" because they are forced.

Originating point of league plans is the Methodist Church, where Juniors and Intermediates have organized two teams, known as the Bulldogs and Panthers and are eagerly awaiting word on game scheduling.

Reverend Clel B. Rodgers of the First Baptist Church, Whitesburg, has shown an interest in the league as has one of his Sunday School teachers, Clyde Walker, and assistant coach Walter Enlow. Jack Swisher, teacher at the Presbyterian Church, Whitesburg, has also registered interest and the Sandlick Presbyterian Church has a team which will also come into the league. Lloyd Holmes is coach of the latter team.

Early plans of the league is to get at least five or six churches from within the county to enter teams in the league. Ray Pigman, Athletic Director at Whitesburg, has offered his whole-hearted support of the project as have Professor Millard Tolliver and Superintendent of Leitch County Schools Dave L. Craft.

Teams would play at least one game a week, each team playing other teams in the league twice during the season and the champion being the team with the best win and lost record.

Boys playing on either A or B teams in high school would not be allowed to compete. Boys must attend Sunday School in order to play with their teams. If a boy misses Sunday School, he is ineligible to practice or play for the following week.

Competition will begin after Christmas and all pastors or Sunday School Superintendents who wish to enter a team in the league should contact Russell Rice at The Mountain Eagle.

An organizational meeting will be held in the near future.

ANOTHER BIG ONE BLUDES THE SENATOR

If we think back a couple months or more, we can remember Senator Archie Craft as the man who hooked such a big fish that the fish broke a stout fishing rod and made its getaway.

We never doubted the Senator's word for we saw the broken rod.

Now from Florida we get a report on a big deer hunting trip the Senator and Dr. Skaggs took on Dr. Skaggs' place in Florida. To show how fast the deer are there, a big buck came in to the hunter's view and Dr. Skaggs yelled for the Senator to shoot. The Senator raised his gun to shoot and before he could get the gun's safety off the deer was gone.

Our suggestion Senator is that you take us on the next big hunting or fishing trip you make.

-Russell.
